Morgan M. Elliott practices oil and gas law and litigates business and commercial cases.

Morgan began her legal career with Monning & Wynne, LLP, representing clients in matters including probate, estate planning, boundary disputes, trespass to try title, forcible detainers, oil and gas negotiations, commercial leases, contract disputes, contested and uncontested divorces, terminations, adoptions, modifications, livestock issues, criminal matters, consumer debt, suits on promissory notes and various other matters. She argued in the 5th District Court of Appeals in Dallas and managed the firm's Wills Point branch.

During law school, she worked two summers as a title researcher for FJE and Co., conducting title research to determine mineral ownership and creating mineral ownership reports, among other duties. This experience has proven to be invaluable as she serves her oil and gas clients.
