

Contact: Janna Fain
Flowers Davis PLLC
512-922-2523
jlf@flowersdavis.com

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Flowers Davis PLLC Attorneys Melanie Reyes & Rob Knight Speak at the East Texas Association of Petroleum Landmen (ETAPL) Spring Seminar

TYLER, TX (April 30, 2017) – Flowers Davis PLLC Attorneys Melanie Reyes and Rob Knight were presented to members of the East Texas Association of Petroleum Landmen (ETAPL) at their annual Spring Seminar.

Reyes and Knight spoke on issues arising due to horizontal drilling, where case law is lagging behind field practices. Their lecture surveyed the current Texas Railroad Commission permitting processes and industry practices in calculating royalties for horizontal allocation wells. Their talk was based on a paper co-authored by Reyes and Flowers Davis PLLC Partner Celia Flowers.

Both Flowers and Reyes are Board Certified by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization in Oil, Gas and Mineral Law. Flowers and Reyes serve the oil and gas industry in the areas of oil and gas title opinions and oil and gas litigation. Knight's oil and gas practice focuses on oil and gas title opinions. ETAPL members received Continuing Education credits for attending the seminar.

About Flowers Davis PLLC

Flowers Davis is an East Texas based law firm whose attorneys represent individuals, businesses and public entities across the State of Texas and beyond in a broad range of legal matters. The Firm's attorneys handle business transactions and litigation matters for clients ranging from local businesses to multinational corporations, with particular emphasis in oil and gas law, real estate law, defense of public entities and insurance defense. Flowers Davis attorneys hold licenses and certifications in varied areas of the law. Many have backgrounds in industry or public service, giving them a working knowledge of the issues their clients face. To learn more about Flowers Davis PLLC, visit www.flowersdavis.com.