Flowers Davis: A Full-Service Law Firm Committed to Excellence

Founded in 1994 by Senior Partners Celia C. Flowers and Robert S. Davis, Flowers Davis is a multidisciplinary law firm providing comprehensive legal services to clients across a wide range of industries. The firm's practice areas have grown from the founders' extensive expertise and leadership.

Celia Flowers is one of less .01% of active Texas lawyers to achieve quadruple Board Certification by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization. Her certifications include Oil, Gas and Mineral Law, Real Estate Law, Property Owners Association Law, and Civil Trial Law—a remarkable accomplishment that underscores her legal skill and dedication.

Under Celia's leadership, the firm's oil, gas, and real estate practices were established and continue to thrive. She now co-leads these sections with Partner Rob Knight. The team handles a broad range of matters, including:

- Eminent domain and condemnation
- Oil, gas and energy transactions and litigation
- Real estate transactions and litigation
- Title opinions and title curative work
- Document preparation and real estate closings

Robert S. Davis leads the firm's Public Entity Defense and Insurance Defense practices. Flowers Davis attorneys represent cities, counties, and law enforcement agencies, as well as handle complex insurance litigation matters.

Both Senior Partners are also actively engaged in business and commercial transactions and litigation. Many of the firm's attorneys bring valuable experience from prior roles in industry and public service, providing clients with practical insights and a strong understanding of the challenges they face.

At Flowers Davis, we are dedicated to providing exceptional legal representation with a personalized approach. Every client benefits from a single point of contact who coordinates with attorneys across practice areas to efficiently address all aspects of their legal needs—whether involving personal matters or complex business transactions.

We are committed to delivering the highest standards of legal skill, professionalism, and client service.

Flowers Davis: Trusted Legal Counsel for Energy & Mining Matters

Flowers Davis is uniquely equipped to handle complex energy and mining legal matters across Texas. With extensive experience advising energy companies, our team provides strategic counsel on regulatory compliance, operational challenges, transactions, litigation and appeals.

Our depth of knowledge is reflected in the strength of our team:

- 13 attorneys focus primarily on energy, real estate transactions, and related litigation.
- 11 attorneys specialize in corporate law, commercial, and business litigation.
- 6 attorneys have expertise in drafting complex agreements, including mineral leases, joint-operating agreements, farm-out agreements, unit designations, easements, master-service agreements, title curative, easements/rights-of-way, entity formation documentation, joint ventures, acquisitions, mergers, form development, and estate planning.
- 8 attorneys are admitted to practice before at least one U.S. District Court in Texas
- 8 attorneys are admitted to practice before at least one U.S. District Court in Texas; 4 are admitted in all four federal courts in the state.
- 3 attorneys are licensed to represent clients before the U.S. Supreme Court and the U.S. Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals.
- 4 attorneys are licensed in multiple states, including Texas, New Mexico, Pennsylvania and Louisiana.
- 4 attorneys bring direct energy sector experience from prior roles.

Several of our attorneys hold Board Certifications from the Texas Board of Legal Specialization—an achievement that reflects rigorous standards of expertise:

- Celia Flowers and Melanie Reyes-Rawls are Board Certified in Oil, Gas, and Mineral Law. (Ellis Vickers (Of Counsel) is a Recognized Specialist in Oil & Gas Law by the New Mexico Board of Legal Specialization).
- Celia Flowers and Preston McGee are Board Certified in Civil Trial Law.
- Celia Flowers also holds Board Certifications in Real Estate Law and Property Owners Association Law.

Board Certification is a rare distinction—fewer than 6% of Texas attorneys hold certification in any specialty. Less than 1% are certified in two areas, and fewer than 0.01% achieve certification in four areas.

Our leadership continues to shape legal discourse in emerging areas. Celia Flowers and Melanie Reyes-Rawls recently co-authored “Who Owns the Lithium? The Wild, Wild West of the Future”, a leading paper addressing ownership rights in lithium and brine resources in Texas. Their work was published in Landman Magazine (April/May) and the Texas State Bar Oil, Gas & Energy Section Law Journal (Spring 2025). The paper will be updated as Texas lawmakers refine the legal definition of “minerals.” In addition, they have developed a prototype lease form specifically designed for brine-sourced mineral exploration and development, offering a practical framework for companies operating in this evolving area.

No other East Texas firm matches our combined experience in oil, gas, energy, mining, real estate, business, and litigation. We also proudly offer East Texas' only patent prosecutor to support your intellectual property needs.

As a full-service firm, Flowers Davis seamlessly coordinates expertise across legal disciplines to efficiently handle complex matters that intersect multiple practice areas.

In addition to the law firm, Celia Flowers owns and/or operates several affiliated businesses supporting the energy industry. These affiliations further strengthen our ability to serve clients across the energy sector—whether upstream, midstream, or downstream operations. We are ready to provide strategic, tailored legal services to meet your needs.

Transactional Services

Transactions, Acquisition and Development, Document Preparation

The Transactions, Acquisitions, and Development team at Flowers Davis has extensive experience negotiating, drafting, and successfully completing acquisitions, mergers, joint ventures, sales, and development transactions for clients in the energy sector. Many of these transactions involve complex financial analysis, due diligence, and environmental considerations.

Our attorneys also provide title examination services to support financing transactions and acquisitions. We deliver detailed reports identifying encumbrances or title issues that could impact financing, acquisition, or development efforts.

In addition, our team prepares, reviews, and revises a wide range of critical documents and agreements, including:

- Leases and mineral forms
- Unitization agreements
- Operating agreements
- Area of Mutual Interest (AMI) agreements
- Farm-out agreements
- Assignments
- Surface use agreements
- Easements

At Flowers Davis, we are committed to ensuring every transaction is thoroughly reviewed and strategically structured to protect our clients' interests and advance their business goals.

Litigation Services

Eminent Domain & Condemnation | Advisory, Litigation, and Project Support

Bringing oil and gas to market often involves navigating complex relationships between energy companies and landowners—especially when pipeline operators act as common carriers or gas utilities with the power of eminent domain. Disputes frequently arise over the amount of compensation owed or, in some cases, whether the entity has the legal right to take the property at all.

Eminent domain and condemnation litigation is a highly specialized area of law that combines elements of administrative law and civil litigation. It demands experienced counsel who understand the procedural nuances and evolving legal landscape.

The attorneys at Flowers Davis have extensive experience representing both plaintiffs and defendants in local, intrastate, and interstate eminent domain and condemnation proceedings in both state and federal courts. We regularly represent oil and gas pipeline companies, transportation departments, and municipalities throughout Texas and have successfully completed pipeline projects across the state.

Our services include:

- Pre-condemnation planning and negotiations
- Injunctive relief to secure property access or prevent interference
- Collaboration with appraisers and valuation experts
- Preparation of litigation documents and property filings
- Representation at Special Commissioners' hearings
- De novo appeals to trial courts
- Appellate review of trial court decisions

Flowers Davis is dedicated to protecting our clients' interests at every stage of the eminent domain process.

Practicing Staff: Celia Flowers, Rob Knight, Preston McGee, Mitch Beard

Energy Litigation | Oil, Gas and Energy Dispute Resolution

Disputes in the oil, gas, and energy sector are often complex, involving state tort law, real estate law, and a wide range of federal and state regulations. The Energy Litigation team at Flowers Davis has the experience and industry knowledge necessary to navigate these challenges and protect our clients' interests.

Our attorneys handle a broad range of energy-related litigation, including:

- Royalty disputes
- Contract disputes
- Injunctions and injunctive relief
- Surface damage claims
- Right-of-way acquisition disputes, including eminent domain proceedings for pipeline companies, power companies, and municipalities

We represent a diverse client base, including:

- Major energy companies
- Pipeline operators
- Service providers and contractors
- Oil and gas interest owners
- Landowners

Flowers Davis is committed to delivering strategic, results-driven representation in every phase of energy litigation, from pre-suit negotiations to trial and appeal.

Practicing Staff: Celia Flowers, Rob Knight, Preston McGee, Melanie Reyes-Rawls, Laci Stovall, Mitch Beard

Business and Commercial Litigation | Energy, Financial and General Business Disputes

The complex and often overlapping relationships within the energy industry—among companies, partnerships, and joint ventures—can give rise to unique business disputes. The Business and Commercial Litigation Attorneys at Flowers Davis are experienced in representing clients across a broad spectrum of business and commercial matters, both within the energy sector and beyond.

Our team handles litigation involving:

- Lender-borrower disputes
- General business and contract disputes
- Personal injury and insurance claims
- Collections and recovery actions
- Defense against consumer law claims, including Deceptive Trade Practices Act (DTPA) litigation

Both Senior Partners, Celia Flowers and Robert Davis, are actively involved in this practice area, along with several other experienced attorneys across the firm.

Flowers Davis is dedicated to providing strategic, results-driven advocacy to protect our clients' business interests in negotiations, litigation, and appeals.

Real Estate Litigation | Comprehensive Representation Across the Real Estate Sector

Flowers Davis has a proven track record of representing property owners, investors, developers, builders, energy companies, homeowners' associations, landlords, and tenants in a wide range of real estate disputes. Our Real Estate Litigation team takes a strategic approach—resolving conflicts efficiently through negotiation, mediation, or early intervention when possible, while also being fully prepared to pursue litigation or injunctive relief when necessary.

Our attorneys handle cases involving:

- Real estate sale contract disputes, including breach of contract, breach of warranty, misrepresentation, and Deceptive Trade Practices Act (DTPA) claims
- Disputes arising from purchase and sale agreements, option agreements, development agreements, and land use regulations
- Claims involving real estate brokers and agents related to their legal and fiduciary duties
- Disputes between landowners and contractors/subcontractors, including lien claims
- Title disputes involving easements, boundary lines, adverse possession, quiet title actions, trespass, nuisance, and related claims
- Premises liability claims and land damage litigation
- Litigation involving mineral interests, oil and gas leases, assignments, farm-outs, joint operating agreements, and royalty disputes
- Receivership actions
- Business agreement disputes, workouts, foreclosures, trustee's sales, collections, deficiency actions, and bankruptcy proceedings, including motions for relief from stay
- Lease disputes involving commercial and residential properties, landlord-tenant issues, liens, and eviction proceedings
- Homeowners' Association disputes related to covenants, conditions, and restrictions (CC&Rs)
- Enforcement and interpretation of Property Owners Association (POA) documents
- Eminent domain and condemnation proceedings in both state and federal courts
- Valuation disputes and partition actions
- Subsurface rights disputes, including water and mineral rights
- Forcible Entry & Detainer suits to assist lenders in reclaiming possession of foreclosed properties

At Flowers Davis, our Real Estate Litigators focus on practical, results-oriented solutions designed to protect client interests and achieve favorable outcomes, whether through negotiated resolution or aggressive litigation.

Intellectual Property

Flowers Davis proudly offers comprehensive intellectual property (IP) services, including representation by a registered U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) attorney. We assist inventors, entrepreneurs, and businesses in protecting their innovations, designs, and creative works.

Our Patent Prosecutor provides the following services:

- Conducts patentability analyses to evaluate whether your invention, process, or design meets the criteria for patent protection.

- Prepares, drafts, and files patent applications with the USPTO.
- Represents clients in negotiations and responses to USPTO office actions.
- Conducts patent reviews and handles appeals before the USPTO.
- Prepares and files appeals with the Patent Trial and Appeal Board (PTAB) and the Federal Circuit Court of Appeals.
- Develops Patent Portfolio Management Plans designed to protect research and development efforts, strengthen market positions, create licensing revenue opportunities, and establish competitive barriers.
- Files Comprehensive Design Patents to protect clients from infringement by covering not only functional inventions but also complementary aspects such as trademarks, copyrights, and design elements.

Our IP team also includes an experienced IP litigator and a dedicated transactional IP attorney:

- Our litigator is well-versed in defending patents, trademarks, and copyrights and has extensive experience in federal court litigation. He regularly serves as local and trial counsel in patent infringement cases, including those pending before the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Texas and its divisions.
- Our transactional IP attorney handles the drafting of licensing agreements and contracts and assists clients with securing trademarks and copyrights to protect their brands and creative works.

At Flowers Davis, we provide end-to-end intellectual property services designed to protect your innovations and support your business growth.

Comprehensive Client Support Through Our Affiliated Companies

When you partner with Flowers Davis, you gain access to a network of affiliated companies designed to complement and enhance the legal services we provide. Senior Partner Celia C. Flowers owns and operates several businesses that work seamlessly with our firm to support the needs of clients across the energy, real estate, and legal sectors:

RecordsOnline - RecordsOnline utilizes cutting-edge technology to provide convenient access to county records across multiple Texas counties. Users—including energy companies, pipeline operators, attorneys, developers, and investors—can search for lawsuits, liens, boundary agreements, mineral ownership records, and more. The platform’s notification system enables users to monitor transactions and filings involving their partners, borrowers, or other relevant parties—keeping clients informed and empowered.

East Texas Title Companies - Licensed in an expanding number of Texas counties, East Texas Title Companies delivers comprehensive title evidence and real estate closing services statewide. As an early adopter of Remote Online Notary (RON) services, East Texas Title allows clients to close transactions from virtually anywhere. All title commitments processed through East Texas Title Companies are reviewed by a licensed Flowers Davis attorney, providing an added layer of legal oversight and protection.

East Texas Tax & Land Services - Specializing in expedited title searches and tax certificates, East Texas Tax & Land Services offers responsive support, including last-minute requests to meet critical deadlines.

Together, these affiliated companies create a one-stop solution for our clients, particularly those in the energy sector, streamlining title, transactional, and litigation services under one umbrella. Additionally, our attorneys frequently conduct industry training seminars—covering topics such as horizontal drilling, title opinions, emerging technologies, adverse possession, and cost-free royalties. These seminars provide Continuing Education (CE) credits and equip participants with practical knowledge of current legal challenges and trends.

At Flowers Davis, we are committed to offering integrated services that deliver efficiency, expertise, and exceptional client value.

Celia C. Flowers – Senior Partner, Industry Advocate, Thought Leader, Quadruple-Board-Certified by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization

Celia C. Flowers is a Senior Partner at Flowers Davis PLLC, where she leads or co-leads the Oil, Gas & Energy, Real Estate, and Civil Litigation Sections.

Celia holds an unparalleled distinction as a quadruple Board-Certified attorney by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization in:

- Oil & Gas Law
- Residential Real Estate Law
- Property Owners Association Law
- Civil Trial Law

Board Certification is the highest mark of excellence in Texas law, and only 0.01% of active Texas attorneys hold certification in four distinct areas—making this a remarkable achievement.

Areas of Practice & Industry Leadership

Celia’s multi-faceted legal expertise spans:

- Oil & gas matters – Title opinions, surface damage disputes, receivership proceedings, and pipeline condemnation.
- Business & commercial litigation – Contract disputes, property claims, and real estate litigation.
- Real estate law – Title examination, transactional work, and advocacy for property owners.

Beyond her legal practice, Celia is the owner of East Texas Title Companies, which operates in over 80 Texas counties. Before becoming an attorney, she spent a decade as a petroleum landman, gaining firsthand industry insight that enhances her legal practice.

Recognized Expertise & Industry Advocacy

Celia is widely regarded as a thought leader and advocate for the oil and gas, real estate, and title insurance industries. Her board memberships, leadership roles, and speaking engagements include:

- Texas Title Examination Standards Board (since 2011) – Developing standards for title examination in real estate and oil and gas law.
- American Board of Trial Advocates (ABOTA) – An exclusive, invitation-only group defending the right to civil jury trials.

- Consumer Financial Protection Bureau & Texas Department of Insurance – Speaking on legislative and regulatory matters.
- Continuing Legal Education (CLE) Instructor – Training attorneys, landmen, and real estate professionals on legal updates.

Awards & Professional Distinctions

Celia's commitment to excellence has earned her:

- AV Preeminent® Rating by Martindale Hubbell (since 2014) – The highest level of peer-reviewed professional excellence.
- Texas Super Lawyer by Thomson Reuters (since 2020).
- Fellow of the College of the State Bar of Texas – An honorary society recognizing the most well-trained attorneys in the state.

Commitment to Education & Industry Advancement

Celia is dedicated to educating and mentoring the next generation of legal and industry professionals. She provides:

- CLE training for attorneys
- MCE courses for realtors
- Educational seminars for landmen and lenders

A Leader in Texas Energy and Real Estate Law

With unmatched expertise, leadership, and dedication, Celia C. Flowers is a trusted legal advocate and industry leader. Her unique combination of legal, business, and industry experience makes her an indispensable resource for her clients, colleagues, and the broader Texas legal and business communities.

Rob Knight – Managing Partner, Oil & Gas and Real Estate Attorney

Rob Knight is the Managing Partner over the Oil and Gas Litigation, Appellate, and Transactional Sections at Flowers Davis PLLC. With a legal career spanning nearly two decades, Rob has extensive experience in oil and gas title opinions, real estate law, and estate planning.

Legal Experience & Expertise

Rob began his practice in Houston, Texas, where he handled cases in family, criminal, real estate, and probate law. He later relocated to Tyler, Texas, to focus on oil and gas title opinions. His practice includes:

- Oil, Gas & Energy Title Opinions – Preparing a wide range of opinions, including drilling, division order, leasehold, and unit-wide opinions for multi-state oil and gas operations.
- Real Estate Law – Rendering title opinions and consulting on title issues for residential and commercial loans, as well as municipal condemnation proceedings.
- Title Review & Title Insurance – Managing a team of attorneys who review over 1,500 real estate properties per month for title companies before issuing title insurance policies.
- Estate Planning – Assisting individuals in wills, trusts, powers of attorney, advanced directives, and Transfer on Death Deeds.

Rob has a strong grasp of real property law, including probate and family law, which frequently intersect with oil and gas matters. His expertise in identifying and curing title defects makes him a trusted resource for large multinational oil and gas companies, mid-sized and small local operators, and individual mineral rights owners.

Commitment to Efficiency & Quality

Rob understands the importance of accuracy and timeliness in real estate and oil and gas transactions. Whether preparing title opinions or assisting with title policies and loan issuances, he ensures that every project is completed efficiently and with the highest level of quality.

Outside of Work

Beyond the legal field, Rob is an avid outdoorsman and creative. His hobbies include:

- Playing guitar & painting
- Mountain biking & yoga
- Preparing for & competing in obstacle course races

A Leader in Oil & Gas, Real Estate, and Title Law

With a deep understanding of land title law and real property transactions, Rob Knight is a respected leader in oil and gas litigation, real estate, and estate planning. Michael Carney – Associate Attorney

Michael Carney is an associate attorney at Flowers Davis’ Tyler office, where he focuses primarily on estate planning and real estate law. With broad legal experience, he advises clients on estate planning strategies, probate proceedings, tutorships, and guardianships, helping them develop and implement comprehensive plans to protect their assets and loved ones.

One of Michael’s areas of particular interest is estate planning for families with children with special needs. As the father of a child with special needs, he brings personal insight and a deep understanding of the challenges these families face, allowing him to provide tailored legal guidance with compassion and expertise.

Michael’s real estate law practice is a natural extension of his estate planning work, requiring a strong understanding of property laws, probate laws, and asset protection strategies. He collaborates with lenders, title companies, individuals, and businesses to ensure that real estate transactions are handled efficiently and professionally. He also facilitates business entity formation and practices corporate transactional law.

Legal and Professional Experience

Before joining Flowers Davis, Michael honed his analytical and research skills as an analyst for the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (PCAOB) in Washington, D.C. There, he:

- Drafted interpretive guidance regarding Board rules
- Prepared recommendations for Board action
- Assisted registered firms in resolving compliance issues

His legal experience also includes clerking for the Hon. John H. Bayly of the District of Columbia Superior Court, where he managed a high-volume criminal docket, conducted legal research, and drafted court orders.

During law school, Michael gained valuable insight into government and regulatory affairs through internships with a United States Senator and the U.S. Chamber of Commerce Commission on Capital Markets, where he assisted in preparing briefing materials for the nomination of Chief Justice John Roberts.

Michael is licensed to practice law in Louisiana and Texas.

Personal Life

Outside of work, Michael enjoys spending time with his wife and four children and exploring the great outdoors. He and his wife, Genevieve, are deeply committed to their family and community.

Maya P. Jedlicka – Attorney Specializing in Oil and Gas Title Opinions, Intellectual Property, and International Business

Versatile Legal Background with International Business Expertise

Since joining Flowers Davis in the fall of 2012, Maya P. Jedlicka has made significant contributions to the Oil and Gas Title Opinion section, where she prepares title opinions for a variety of oil and gas companies. Maya brings a wealth of international business experience and a diverse legal background to her work, providing clients with well-rounded and thorough legal counsel.

International Business Experience and Patented Products

Maya's unique professional journey includes owning an international firm that sold patented products she invented. As a business owner, she:

- Managed overseas manufacturing, including quality control, production schedules, and product shipments.
- Negotiated with Chinese manufacturers and managed litigation issues.
- Managed the company's patent portfolio and intellectual property.

After selling her company, Maya transitioned into the role of Director of Imports and Litigation Management, where she continued handling legal matters and intellectual property issues for the business.

Legal Career and Immigration Law Expertise

Before transitioning into international business, Maya began her legal career as an Associate Attorney at Tidwell Swaim and Associates in Dallas, focusing on Immigration Law. During her time there, she successfully represented clients in Federal Immigration Court, and notably drafted a brief to the United States 5th District Court of Appeals, winning a rarely-awarded stay of deportation.

Oil and Gas Experience

After a six-and-a-half-year break from the law, Maya returned to her legal roots in 2011, working as a Contract Oil and Gas Title Attorney for The Findley Law Firm. There, she completed over 50 title opinions for multiple units in the Texas Barnett Shale play and the Ohio Utica Shale play, further honing her expertise in oil and gas law.

Multilingual and Well-Travelled

Maya has traveled extensively across the US, Mexico, France, Spain, Croatia, Germany, China, Bangladesh, and Japan. Fluent in Spanish, advanced in French, and intermediate in Japanese, she is well-equipped to handle international legal and business challenges.

Personal Interests

Outside of work, Maya enjoys training dogs, playing the violin, practicing yoga, and reading.

Andy Schwing – Oil and Gas Title Opinion Expert with Litigation and Landman Experience

Oil and Gas Title Opinions and Legal Expertise

Since contracting with Flowers Davis in 2012, Andy Schwing has focused his practice on preparing Oil and Gas Title Opinions. With his unique blend of legal expertise and landman experience, Andy brings a thorough and practical perspective to the preparation of title opinions in the oil and gas industry.

Licensed in Texas and Louisiana

Andy is licensed to practice in both Texas and Louisiana, and his background includes extensive experience working in the Haynesville and Tuscaloosa Marine shale plays, where he was involved in a variety of tasks including:

- Determining mineral and surface ownership
- Royalty and overriding royalty interests
- Preparing runsheets and flow charts
- Title curative and division orders
- Writing oil and gas title opinions on Louisiana title

Andy's unique dual experience as both a litigation attorney and a Landman has provided him with a valuable perspective on title work, making him especially adept at handling complex title issues.

Personal Interests

When not working, Andy enjoys spending time with his family and engaging in a variety of personal interests, including:

- Attending Mardi Gras
- Watching New Orleans Saints and LSU football
- Fishing
- Traveling
- Exercising

Practice Areas: Oil & Gas Title Opinions

Andy Schwing has contracted with the Oil and Gas Section of Flowers Davis since 2012. His primary focus is on preparing Oil and Gas Title Opinions.

Licensed in both Texas and Louisiana, Andy spent the seven years prior to joining Flowers Davis working as a litigation attorney and as a Landman. He worked in the Haynesville and Tuscaloosa Marine shale plays, determining mineral and surface ownership, royalty and overriding royalty interests, preparing runsheets and flow charts, title curative and division orders. He also wrote oil and gas title opinions on Louisiana title. His background enables him to bring a Landman's perspective to writing Title Opinions.

Laci Stovall – Business Transactions, Real Estate & Oil & Gas Litigation Attorney

Legal Expertise & Career Journey

Laci Stovall focuses her legal practice at Flowers Davis on business transactions, real estate litigation, and oil and gas litigation. A licensed attorney since 2020, her passion for the legal field began in 2010 when she worked as a runner for a Tyler law firm. She gained further business law and litigation insights through internships at local firms and later assisted low-income rural Mississippi residents in forming LLCs as a Student Attorney for the University of Mississippi Transactional Law Clinic.

Prior to joining Flowers Davis in 2022, Laci built a strong foundation in business transactional law, property/real estate law, oil and gas law, and estate planning. With three years of experience in the oil and gas industry, she brings a well-rounded and pragmatic approach to legal problem-solving.

Education & Community Involvement

Laci's academic background includes:

- B.A. in History – Texas A&M University
- M.A. in Communication Studies (Rhetorical Theory Emphasis) – University of North Texas Toulouse Graduate School
- Juris Doctorate – University of Mississippi School of Law

Throughout her education, Laci was actively involved in university and community organizations, focusing on philanthropy and community outreach—values she continues to uphold in her professional and personal life.

Personal Life & Passion for Inclusivity

Originally from Troup, Texas, Laci is a dedicated single mother to her spirited daughter, Thea Rene' ("Lil Miss"), whom she affectionately calls "the next R.B.G." She is passionate about fostering inclusivity and equity and strives to be a strong role model for her daughter.

Outside of work, Laci enjoys spending time with Thea, embracing the joys of motherhood, and working toward a more just and inclusive world.

Ginger Young – Immigration Attorney & Community Advocate

Since 2009, Ginger Young has been a dedicated immigration attorney at Flowers Davis, PLLC, focusing on family-based immigration, permanent residency, and naturalization cases. As an active member of the American Immigration Lawyers Association (AILA), Ginger stays at the forefront of immigration law, ensuring her clients receive the most informed and effective representation possible.

Legal Experience & Career Journey

Ginger’s legal career has spanned multiple practice areas, all with a focus on advocating for and defending her clients:

- Law School & Early Career – Interned for the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC), gaining experience in civil rights law.
- Fanning, Harper & Martinson (Dallas) – Represented school districts and governmental entities in civil rights and employment litigation.
- Thompson & Knight (Houston) – Continued her work in employment and labor defense.
- Flowers Davis, PLLC (Since 2000) – Initially focused on civil rights and employment litigation, defending governmental and law enforcement agencies before transitioning to immigration law in 2009.

Passion for Immigration Law

Ginger’s shift to immigration law was driven by her desire to help clients build better lives. Since making this transition, she has helped countless individuals and families navigate the complexities of U.S. immigration law, providing compassionate and results-driven representation.

Community Leadership & Advocacy

Beyond the courtroom, Ginger is deeply committed to empowering and integrating the Hispanic community in East Texas. In 2022, she founded Viva La Rosa, a nonprofit dedicated to Latino cultural and social inclusion. Its first major initiative was integrating Hispanic representation into the Texas Rose Festival, where over 40 quinceañeras from 20 Hispanic heritage countries participated in the parade—a historic and now annual event. Flowers Davis proudly sponsors the float, and Ginger personally ensures families can attend the Coronation.

A Trusted Advocate for Immigration & Inclusion

Ginger’s bilingual skills (fluent in Spanish), deep legal knowledge, and commitment to her community make her an outstanding advocate for immigrant families. Whether fighting for clients' rights or leading cultural initiatives, she is dedicated to making a meaningful impact.

Ginger enjoys spending time with her husband, Bob, and daughter, Olivia, and continuing her mission to uplift and support her community.
