Firm Overview

Flowers Davis PLLC is a full-service law firm based in Tyler, Texas, offering strategic legal counsel across a wide range of practice areas. Since our founding in 1994 by Senior Partners Celia C. Flowers and Robert S. Davis, we have built a strong reputation for delivering efficient, results-driven legal solutions to financial institutions, corporations, and public entities.

Celia C. Flowers brings exceptional legal credentials to the firm, being one of fewer than ten attorneys in Texas Board Certified by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization in four areas of law: Oil, Gas and Mineral Law, Real Estate Law, Property Owners Association Law, and Civil Litigation. Under her leadership, Flowers Davis has developed robust practice areas in oil and gas, real estate, and financial services. Our team regularly advises on title matters, real estate transactions, regulatory compliance, and related litigation—matters that are critical to financial institutions managing complex portfolios or transactions.

Robert S. Davis leads the firm's public entity and insurance defense practice groups. His team represents governmental bodies and handles a wide range of litigation for insurers and self-insured entities. His litigation experience, particularly with institutional clients, adds a strong layer of risk management insight to the firm's offerings.

Both senior partners are actively involved in the firm's commercial and business litigation practices. With nearly 20 areas of legal service and a team that includes attorneys with backgrounds in finance, industry, and public service, Flowers Davis is well-equipped to support the needs of banks, credit unions, lenders, title companies, and financial service providers.

Clients benefit from a streamlined approach to service delivery: each is assigned a primary point of contact who coordinates across practice areas, ensuring consistency, responsiveness, and alignment with business goals.

For Lenders

Flowers Davis PLLC is a full-service law firm with the experience and insight to help banks and private lenders navigate the complex regulatory, transactional, and litigation challenges that arise in today's financial landscape. We offer legal services tailored specifically to the needs of financial institutions—along with solutions that also support your clients and operational goals.

Lending Transactions

We understand that lending is more than just paperwork—it's a critical part of your business, and each transaction has its own set of risks and requirements. Our attorneys assist with both commercial and residential lending transactions, preparing and reviewing documents such as deeds, deeds of trust, loan agreements, lien releases, modification agreements, collateral substitution agreements, and loan participation agreements. We also handle real estate closings and servicing activities for both local and out-of-area lenders. Additionally, our team offers thorough title reviews and curative work to resolve defects and ensure clear ownership.

Operations & Compliance

In today's regulatory environment, compliance is non-negotiable. Our attorneys provide guidance on a wide range of regulatory matters, including compliance with TILA/RESPA Integrated Disclosures (TRID). We assist with drafting internal loan policies and procedures, structuring complex loan agreements, and advising on inter-creditor and subordination arrangements. We also help lenders proactively manage risk by advising on how to avoid lender liability—and we're ready to defend you if litigation arises.

Collections

Our bankruptcy and creditors' rights team represents lenders in all aspects of debt recovery, including bankruptcy, foreclosure, sequestration, and repossession. We work to protect and enforce your rights, whether through filing claims in bankruptcy, obtaining and executing writs of sequestration, filing forcible entry and detainer actions, or repossessing personal property. Our goal is always to help you recover assets quickly and efficiently.

Intellectual Property Services

Flowers Davis proudly offers comprehensive intellectual property (IP) services, including representation by a registered U.S. Patent and Trademark Office (USPTO) attorney. We assist inventors, entrepreneurs, and businesses in protecting their innovations, designs, and creative works.

Our Patent Prosecutor provides the following services:

- Conducts patentability analyses to evaluate whether your invention, process, or design meets the criteria for patent protection.
- Prepares, drafts, and files patent applications with the USPTO.
- Represents clients in negotiations and responses to USPTO office actions.
- Conducts patent reviews and handles appeals before the USPTO.
- Prepares and files appeals with the Patent Trial and Appeal Board (PTAB) and the Federal Circuit Court of Appeals.
- Develops Patent Portfolio Management Plans designed to protect research and development efforts, strengthen market positions, create licensing revenue opportunities, and establish competitive barriers.
- Files Comprehensive Design Patents to protect clients from infringement by covering not only functional inventions but also complementary aspects such as trademarks, copyrights, and design elements.

Our IP team also includes an experienced IP litigator and a dedicated transactional IP attorney:

- Our litigator is well-versed in defending patents, trademarks, and copyrights and has extensive experience in federal court litigation. He regularly serves as local and trial counsel in patent infringement cases, including those pending before the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Texas and its divisions.
- Our transactional IP attorney handles the drafting of licensing agreements and contracts and assists clients with securing trademarks and copyrights to protect their brands and creative works.

At Flowers Davis, we provide end-to-end intellectual property services designed to protect your innovations and support your business growth.

Flowers Davis: A Strategic Legal Partner with Built-in Support for Lenders

At Flowers Davis PLLC, we understand that lenders need more than legal advice—they need a reliable partner who can offer end-to-end support. That’s why, under the leadership of founding partner Celia C. Flowers, we’ve built a network of affiliated companies designed to work seamlessly together and deliver practical, timely solutions to lenders.

Through this integrated model, our clients enjoy access to:

East Texas Title Companies

Licensed in an expanding number of Texas counties, this group provides dependable title evidence and real estate closing services that meet the demands of commercial and residential lending.

East Texas Tax & Land Services

A go-to resource for accurate title searches and tax certificates—especially for urgent or last-minute requests—keeping your transactions on track without unnecessary delays.

RecordsOnline

A technology-forward platform offering online access to real property records, supporting lenders, title professionals, and legal teams with fast, searchable data.

Together, these businesses were created to give lenders a single source for legal counsel, title services, due diligence, and document processing. This one-stop-shop approach streamlines your workflow, improves communication, and reduces turnaround time on transactions.

In addition, Celia C. Flowers offers semi-annual lender training programs to help financial professionals stay current on key industry topics such as real estate lending trends, legislative updates, RESPA compliance, and best practices. Celia’s expertise is nationally recognized—she is one of fewer than ten attorneys in Texas to be Board Certified in four legal areas by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization:

- Residential Real Estate Law
- Oil, Gas and Mineral Law
- Property Owners Association Law
- Civil Litigation

For lenders seeking knowledgeable counsel, integrated support services, and an ongoing educational resource, Flowers Davis delivers a complete solution.

Celia C. Flowers – Senior Partner, Industry Advocate, Thought Leader, Quadruple-Board-Certified by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization

Celia C. Flowers is a Senior Partner at Flowers Davis PLLC, where she leads or co-leads the Oil, Gas & Energy, Real Estate, and Civil Litigation Sections.

Celia holds an unparalleled distinction as a quadruple Board-Certified attorney by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization in:

- Oil & Gas Law
- Residential Real Estate Law
- Property Owners Association Law
- Civil Trial Law

Board Certification is the highest mark of excellence in Texas law, and only 0.01% of active Texas attorneys hold certification in four distinct areas—making this a remarkable achievement.

Areas of Practice & Industry Leadership

Celia’s multi-faceted legal expertise spans:

- Oil & gas matters – Title opinions, surface damage disputes, receivership proceedings, and pipeline condemnation.
- Business & commercial litigation – Contract disputes, property claims, and real estate litigation.
- Real estate law – Title examination, transactional work, and advocacy for property owners.

Beyond her legal practice, Celia is the owner of East Texas Title Companies, which operates in over 80 Texas counties. Before becoming an attorney, she spent a decade as a petroleum landman, gaining firsthand industry insight that enhances her legal practice.

Recognized Expertise & Industry Advocacy

Celia is widely regarded as a thought leader and advocate for the oil and gas, real estate, and title insurance industries. Her board memberships, leadership roles, and speaking engagements include:

- Texas Title Examination Standards Board (since 2011) – Developing standards for title examination in real estate and oil and gas law.
- American Board of Trial Advocates (ABOTA) – An exclusive, invitation-only group defending the right to civil jury trials.

- Consumer Financial Protection Bureau & Texas Department of Insurance – Speaking on legislative and regulatory matters.
- Continuing Legal Education (CLE) Instructor – Training attorneys, landmen, and real estate professionals on legal updates.

Awards & Professional Distinctions

Celia's commitment to excellence has earned her:

- AV Preeminent® Rating by Martindale Hubbell (since 2014) – The highest level of peer-reviewed professional excellence.
- Texas Super Lawyer by Thomson Reuters (since 2020).
- Fellow of the College of the State Bar of Texas – An honorary society recognizing the most well-trained attorneys in the state.

Commitment to Education & Industry Advancement

Celia is dedicated to educating and mentoring the next generation of legal and industry professionals. She provides:

- CLE training for attorneys
- MCE courses for realtors
- Educational seminars for landmen and lenders

A Leader in Texas Energy and Real Estate Law

With unmatched expertise, leadership, and dedication, Celia C. Flowers is a trusted legal advocate and industry leader. Her unique combination of legal, business, and industry experience makes her an indispensable resource for her clients, colleagues, and the broader Texas legal and business communities.

Michael Carney – Associate Attorney

Michael Carney is an associate attorney at Flowers Davis' Tyler office, where he focuses primarily on estate planning and real estate law. With broad legal experience, he advises clients on estate planning strategies, probate proceedings, tutorships, and guardianships, helping them develop and implement comprehensive plans to protect their assets and loved ones.

One of Michael's areas of particular interest is estate planning for families with children with special needs. As the father of a child with special needs, he brings personal insight and a deep understanding of the challenges these families face, allowing him to provide tailored legal guidance with compassion and expertise.

Michael's real estate law practice is a natural extension of his estate planning work, requiring a strong understanding of property laws, probate laws, and asset protection strategies. He collaborates with lenders, title companies, individuals, and businesses to ensure that real estate transactions are handled efficiently and professionally. He also facilitates business entity formation and practices corporate transactional law.

Legal and Professional Experience

Before joining Flowers Davis, Michael honed his analytical and research skills as an analyst for the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (PCAOB) in Washington, D.C. There, he:

- Drafted interpretive guidance regarding Board rules
- Prepared recommendations for Board action
- Assisted registered firms in resolving compliance issues

His legal experience also includes clerking for the Hon. John H. Bayly of the District of Columbia Superior Court, where he managed a high-volume criminal docket, conducted legal research, and drafted court orders.

During law school, Michael gained valuable insight into government and regulatory affairs through internships with a United States Senator and the U.S. Chamber of Commerce Commission on Capital Markets, where he assisted in preparing briefing materials for the nomination of Chief Justice John Roberts.

Michael is licensed to practice law in Louisiana and Texas.

Personal Life

Outside of work, Michael enjoys spending time with his wife and four children and exploring the great outdoors. He and his wife, Genevieve, are deeply committed to their family and community.

Catherine Chesley Goodgion – Patent Prosecutor & Real Estate Attorney

Patent Law & Intellectual Property Expertise

Catherine Chesley Goodgion is a USPTO-licensed Patent Prosecutor, an elite designation requiring legal, scientific, and technical qualifications. To achieve this distinction, she:

- Earned a technical science degree and law degree
- Passed the USPTO bar examination
- Met stringent moral character and reputation standards

As a Patent Prosecutor, Catherine researches patentability, prepares and files patent applications, negotiates with the USPTO, files appeals, and helps businesses develop comprehensive intellectual property protection plans. Her expertise extends to trademarks and copyrights, ensuring robust IP protection for inventors and entrepreneurs.

Real Estate & Business Transactions

Catherine’s legal practice also encompasses:

- Real Estate Transactions, Acquisitions & Development
- Document Preparation & Curative Title Work
- Drafting and reviewing purchase and sale agreements for residential and commercial transactions
- Handling complex curative issues in real estate law

She has extensive experience in asset acquisitions and divestitures, drafting key documents such as assignments, purchase and sale agreements, right-of-way agreements, easements, boundary line agreements, and affidavits of heirship.

Industry Experience & Business Perspective

Before passing the bar, Catherine worked as an Independent Petroleum Landman at Flowers Davis, running title, preparing runsheets, and completing ownership reports. Her business acumen is reinforced by her prior career as a Pharmaceutical Sales Specialist, where she exceeded sales targets for antidepressants, hormone therapy products, and insulin treatments. This diverse experience gives Catherine a unique business perspective in her legal practice, especially in pharmaceutical, medical, and oil & gas industries.

Preston McGee – Litigator, Civil & Personal Injury Trial Lawyer

Board-Certified Trial Attorney

Preston McGee is Board Certified in Civil Trial Law and Personal Injury Trial Law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization—an achievement held by fewer than 1% of Texas attorneys with dual certifications. He has devoted his career to defending businesses, both large and small, in commercial and personal injury litigation.

Legal Expertise

Preston has an extensive trial practice, including:

- Commercial & Personal Injury Litigation – Defending businesses in complex disputes
- Construction Litigation – Successfully representing contractors and subcontractors against commercial and governmental claims
- Oil & Gas Litigation – Handling injury and condemnation cases for major oil and gas companies
- Medical & Professional Liability – Defending professionals in malpractice and liability claims
- Intellectual Property Litigation – Acting as local and trial counsel for businesses and corporations in federal cases pending in the Eastern District of Texas
- DTPA & Employment Law – Representing individuals and businesses in consumer protection and employment-related disputes

Career & Background

After earning his law degree from Baylor University Law School, Preston began his career at the Potter Law Firm in Tyler. His early success led to him being recognized as the Smith County Bar Association Outstanding Young Lawyer in 1996. He founded his own firm in 1998 before joining Flowers Davis in 2001, where he continues to vigorously advocate for his clients in trial practice.

Personal Life & Community Involvement

A sixth-generation Texan and East Texas native, Preston and his wife Liz have called Tyler home since 1986. They share a close-knit family with their children and their spouses: Peyton & Katelaine McGee, Emily & Bill Boyd, and Abby & Harrison Pollard.

Preston is deeply committed to his community and faith, serving as a Deacon and adult Connect Group leader at his local church. In his free time, he enjoys playing golf, cheering on his favorite football and basketball teams, and most of all, spending time with his family.

Scott Miller – Real Estate, Banking & Business Law Attorney

Experienced Legal Counsel for Financial & Real Estate Institutions

Scott Miller is a seasoned attorney specializing in Real Estate, Banking, Mortgage Lending, and Business Law. With a background in both retail banking and title insurance, Scott brings a unique insider perspective to his legal practice, making him a trusted advisor to financial institutions, title companies, and businesses across Texas.

Legal & Financial Expertise

Scott provides comprehensive legal representation in:

- Banking & Mortgage Lending – Advising banks, credit unions, and mortgage lenders on regulatory compliance, loan structuring, and financial transactions
- Real Estate Law – Handling commercial and residential real estate transactions, title matters, and lending documentation
- Business Law – Assisting companies with contracts, entity formation, and general business transactions
- Title Insurance & Escrow Matters – Representing title companies and escrow officers in legal and regulatory issues

Professional Background

Scott began his legal career as an in-house attorney for a farm and ranch bank in East Texas, where he gained hands-on experience in agricultural lending and financial services law. Before law school, he spent a decade in retail banking, serving as a loan officer, banking center manager, and regional manager overseeing 30+ branches in the Dallas/Fort Worth area. Additionally, he worked as an escrow officer for a national title insurance underwriter, giving him a deep understanding of real estate transactions and title issues.

Laci Stovall – Business Transactions, Real Estate & Oil & Gas Litigation Attorney

Legal Expertise & Career Journey

Laci Stovall focuses her legal practice at Flowers Davis on business transactions, real estate litigation, and oil and gas litigation. A licensed attorney since 2020, her passion for the legal field began in 2010 when she worked as a runner for a Tyler law firm. She gained further business law and litigation insights through internships at local firms and later assisted low-income rural Mississippi residents in forming LLCs as a Student Attorney for the University of Mississippi Transactional Law Clinic.

Prior to joining Flowers Davis in 2022, Laci built a strong foundation in business transactional law, property/real estate law, oil and gas law, and estate planning. With three years of experience in the oil and gas industry, she brings a well-rounded and pragmatic approach to legal problem-solving.

Education & Community Involvement

Laci's academic background includes:

- B.A. in History – Texas A&M University
- M.A. in Communication Studies (Rhetorical Theory Emphasis) – University of North Texas Toulouse Graduate School
- Juris Doctorate – University of Mississippi School of Law

Throughout her education, Laci was actively involved in university and community organizations, focusing on philanthropy and community outreach—values she continues to uphold in her professional and personal life.

Personal Life & Passion for Inclusivity

Originally from Troup, Texas, Laci is a dedicated single mother to her spirited daughter, Thea Rene' ("Lil Miss"), whom she affectionately calls "the next R.B.G." She is passionate about fostering inclusivity and equity and strives to be a strong role model for her daughter.

Outside of work, Laci enjoys spending time with Thea, embracing the joys of motherhood, and working toward a more just and inclusive world.

Ginger Young – Immigration Attorney & Community Advocate

Since 2009, Ginger Young has been a dedicated immigration attorney at Flowers Davis, PLLC, focusing on family-based immigration, permanent residency, and naturalization cases. As an active member of the American Immigration Lawyers Association (AILA), Ginger stays at the forefront of immigration law, ensuring her clients receive the most informed and effective representation possible.

Legal Experience & Career Journey

Ginger's legal career has spanned multiple practice areas, all with a focus on advocating for and defending her clients:

- Law School & Early Career – Interned for the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC), gaining experience in civil rights law.
- Fanning, Harper & Martinson (Dallas) – Represented school districts and governmental entities in civil rights and employment litigation.
- Thompson & Knight (Houston) – Continued her work in employment and labor defense.
- Flowers Davis, PLLC (Since 2000) – Initially focused on civil rights and employment litigation, defending governmental and law enforcement agencies before transitioning to immigration law in 2009.

Passion for Immigration Law

Ginger's shift to immigration law was driven by her desire to help clients build better lives. Since making this transition, she has helped countless individuals and families navigate the complexities of U.S. immigration law, providing compassionate and results-driven representation.

Community Leadership & Advocacy

Beyond the courtroom, Ginger is deeply committed to empowering and integrating the Hispanic community in East Texas. In 2022, she founded Viva La Rosa, a nonprofit dedicated to Latino cultural and social inclusion. Its first major initiative was integrating Hispanic representation into the Texas Rose Festival, where over 40 quinceañeras from 20 Hispanic heritage countries participated in the parade—a historic and now annual event. Flowers Davis proudly sponsors the float, and Ginger personally ensures families can attend the Coronation.

A Trusted Advocate for Immigration & Inclusion

Ginger's bilingual skills (fluent in Spanish), deep legal knowledge, and commitment to her community make her an outstanding advocate for immigrant families. Whether fighting for clients' rights or leading cultural initiatives, she is dedicated to making a meaningful impact.

Life Outside of Work

Ginger enjoys spending time with her husband, Bob, and daughter, Olivia, and continuing her mission to uplift and support her community.
