Flowers Davis: A Full-Service Law Firm Committed to Excellence

Founded in 1994 by Senior Partners Celia C. Flowers and Robert S. Davis, Flowers Davis is a multidisciplinary law firm providing comprehensive legal services to clients across a wide range of industries. The firm's practice areas have grown from the founders' extensive expertise and leadership.

Celia Flowers is one of less .01% of active Texas lawyers to achieve quadruple Board Certification by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization. Her certifications include Oil, Gas and Mineral Law, Real Estate Law, Property Owners Association Law, and Civil Trial Law—a remarkable accomplishment that underscores her legal skill and dedication.

Under Celia's leadership, the firm's oil, gas, and real estate practices were established and continue to thrive. She now co-leads these sections with Partner Rob Knight. The team handles a broad range of matters, including:

- Eminent domain and condemnation
- Oil, gas and energy transactions and litigation
- Real estate transactions and litigation
- Title opinions and title curative work
- Document preparation and real estate closings

Robert S. Davis leads the firm's Public Entity Defense and Insurance Defense practices. Flowers Davis attorneys represent cities, counties, and law enforcement agencies, as well as handle complex insurance litigation matters.

Both Senior Partners are also actively engaged in business and commercial transactions and litigation. Many of the firm's attorneys bring valuable experience from prior roles in industry and public service, providing clients with practical insights and a strong understanding of the challenges they face.

At Flowers Davis, we are dedicated to providing exceptional legal representation with a personalized approach. Every client benefits from a single point of contact who coordinates with attorneys across practice areas to efficiently address all aspects of their legal needs—whether involving personal matters or complex business transactions.

We are committed to delivering the highest standards of legal skills, professionalism, and client service.

Overview of Real Estate Services

The Flowers Davis Real Estate Law and Litigation Sections are committed to representing clients in a wide range of transactional and litigation matters in real estate. Whether you're looking to carry out smooth transactions or need assistance in a real estate dispute, our team is here to help.

Real Estate Law: Transactions

Our Real Estate Law attorneys are focused on ensuring that your business setup and transactions are executed properly the first time. The emphasis is on preventing disputes and delays through thorough planning and execution. By addressing potential legal issues upfront, we aim to keep your transactions running smoothly without the need for costly delays or conflicts.

Real Estate Litigation: Disputes and Remedies

When disputes and delays inevitably arise, Flowers Davis Real Estate Litigators are skilled at finding solutions both in and out of the courtroom. We often find that a well-crafted letter or a timely phone call can resolve issues more effectively than a formal lawsuit. However, if litigation is necessary, our team has a proven track record of successfully prosecuting and defending clients in a wide range of real estate-related conflicts, including:

- Property Owners
- Investors
- Developers
- Builders
- Homeowners Associations (HOAs)/Property Owners Associations (POAs)
- Landlords and Tenants

Mediation and Negotiation

In addition to litigation, we actively pursue mediation and negotiation to meet client objectives and avoid lengthy, expensive legal battles. We prioritize reaching outcomes that are in the best interests of our clients, with a goal of resolving conflicts efficiently and effectively.

Team Leadership

The Flowers Davis Real Estate Section is led by Senior Partner Celia C. Flowers and Partner Rob Knight. Together, they bring deep expertise and leadership to the firm's real estate practice.

Celia C. Flowers

- Quadruple-Board Certified by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization in:
 - Residential Real Estate Law
 - Oil & Gas Law
 - Property Owners Association Law
 - Civil Litigation
- Frequent Speaker and Trainer for Realtor MCE and Attorney CLE courses on real estate and oil and gas matters, including Remote Online Notary services.

- Owner/Operator of several affiliated businesses serving the real estate industry, including East Texas Title Companies, licensed across an expanding number of counties in Texas. The title company offers comprehensive services from offer to closing, handling title curative, easement, and contract issues before they become problems.

Rob Knight

Rob Knight is a Partner in the Real Estate Section, bringing significant experience and expertise in the real estate law field.

Comprehensive Real Estate Services

From transactional support to litigation, Flowers Davis offers comprehensive real estate services for:

- Buyers and Sellers
- Landlords and Tenants
- Developers and Builders
- Property Owners
- Homeowners Associations
- Investors
- Title Companies

Whether you're dealing with title issues, easements, or navigating complex property transactions, our team can help facilitate smooth closings throughout Texas. We also assist with title curative services and resolving legal issues before they escalate.

Additional Services

East Texas Title Companies, under the leadership of Celia C. Flowers, offers:

- Title Services throughout Texas
- Closing Services
- Easement and Contract Issue Resolution

Let us help you avoid pitfalls and ensure your real estate transactions proceed without unnecessary obstacles.

Real Estate Litigation

Flowers Davis Real Estate Litigators are dedicated to protecting your property rights and ensuring your investment is safeguarded in the face of disputes. We understand that property ownership is often one of the largest and most emotionally significant investments, and we are prepared to handle any related conflicts both in and out of court.

While we always aim for an out-of-court settlement, mediation, or negotiation, we are fully prepared to represent our clients in court when necessary. Our team works closely with the transactional section to ensure smooth communication and coordinated efforts in handling disputes.

We have represented clients in various real estate litigation matters, including:

- Disputes arising under purchase and sale agreements, option agreements, development agreements, and land use laws and regulations
- Title disputes involving easements, boundary lines, adverse possession, quiet title actions, trespass, nuisance, and other related actions
- Premises liability and damages to land litigation
- Mineral interests and leases disputes, including oil and gas purchase and sale agreements, assignments, farm-outs, joint operating agreements, and royalties
- Receivership actions
- Business agreement disputes, including workouts, foreclosures, trustee's sales, collection, deficiency actions, and bankruptcy matters, including motions for relief from stay

Our team is committed to providing effective and strategic legal representation to navigate these complex matters, always working to achieve the best outcome for our clients.

Developer Litigation Matters

Flowers Davis' Real Estate Litigation Section is well-equipped to help developers navigate the complexities of disputes that can arise throughout the real estate development process. Our attorneys have extensive experience in handling a broad range of issues, including:

- Bankruptcy/Foreclosure/Sequestration: Representing developers in bankruptcy proceedings, foreclosure actions, and sequestration to protect their assets and interests.
- Condemnation/Eminent Domain Proceedings: Providing skilled representation in condemnation and eminent domain cases, including hearings and trials in both state and federal courts. We help ensure that developers are compensated fairly when their property is taken for public use.
- Subsurface Rights and Disputes Relating to Water and Minerals: Addressing legal disputes over subsurface rights, including water and mineral rights, that can impact property development.
- Disputes Between Landowners and Contractors: Representing developers in disputes with general contractors, subcontractors, and related liens that can arise during construction and development projects.
- Valuation Disputes and Partition Proceedings: Assisting in resolving valuation disputes among co-owners or business partners, as well as handling partition proceedings when property needs to be divided among multiple owners.
- Violations of Consumer Law, Including Deceptive Trade Practices (DTPA): Defending developers against claims under consumer protection laws, such as deceptive trade practices, or pursuing such claims if needed.

Our team is dedicated to helping developers resolve their legal issues efficiently, ensuring that conflicts are handled strategically and effectively, whether through negotiation, mediation, or litigation.

Eminent Domain | Condemnation

Flowers Davis' Eminent Domain and Condemnation practice is designed to assist clients in navigating the complex and often contentious process of property acquisition by government entities or private parties for public use. With the expansion of "public use" to include a wide range of commercial developments since 2005, the involvement of developers and landowners in eminent domain proceedings has significantly increased.

Our attorneys bring a deep understanding of the intricacies involved in these types of cases, as eminent domain and condemnation proceedings blend administrative law with litigation. We have successfully represented both plaintiffs (landowners) and defendants (entities taking property) in local, intrastate, and interstate eminent domain cases, whether in state or federal court.

Our Eminent Domain and Condemnation Services Include:

- Pre-condemnation Planning and Negotiations: Helping clients anticipate and plan for the potential taking of their property, and negotiating with government entities or developers before formal condemnation proceedings are initiated.
- Injunctive Relief: Securing court orders to prevent interference with or access to property before a condemnation or eminent domain process takes place.
- Cooperation with Appraisers: Collaborating with professional appraisers to ensure fair valuation of the property involved and to address potential disputes regarding its worth.
- Preparation of Litigation Documents and Property Filings: Crafting the necessary legal documents for filing with courts or other entities involved in the condemnation process.
- Special Commissioners' Hearings: Representing clients during hearings where special commissioners determine the fair market value of property being condemned.
- De Novo Appeals to the Trial Court: Assisting with appeals of the commissioners' decisions to the trial court when necessary, ensuring a fair and impartial process for determining compensation.
- Appellate Review: Handling any necessary appellate review of trial court decisions, ensuring that clients' rights are fully protected throughout the entire process.

Whether you are a property owner, developer, oil and gas pipeline company, or city entity, Flowers Davis offers skilled representation in eminent domain and condemnation proceedings, ensuring the best possible outcome for your interests.

Investors | Unrepresented Buyers and Sellers

At Flowers Davis, our real estate attorneys are equipped to guide clients through the complexities of both real estate transactions and disputes, no matter the scale of the matter. Whether you are an experienced commercial investor, a homeowner seeking to sell, or an unrepresented home buyer, our team is here to provide comprehensive legal support every step of the way.

Our Real Estate Services Include:

- Document Preparation: Ensuring all necessary documents for real estate transactions are properly prepared and compliant with the law.
- Small Estate Planning: Assisting with the creation of wills and other estate planning tools to ensure smooth transfers of property upon death.
- Company Formation: Advising on the best business structure (LLC, corporation, etc.) for real estate endeavors and assisting with the setup.
- Title Examination/Curative: Conducting thorough title searches and addressing any title defects or issues that may arise.
- Valuation Disputes and Partition Proceedings: Representing clients in disputes over property value or in cases involving the division of property (partition).
- Eminent Domain and Condemnation: Representing clients in eminent domain proceedings and related hearings or trials, both at the state and federal levels.
- Subsurface Rights and Disputes: Handling legal matters related to mineral, water, and other subsurface rights, including disputes over ownership and usage.

Personalized Service:

You'll always have one primary point of contact within the firm who will coordinate with other parties and professionals, ensuring that your case progresses smoothly and efficiently. Whether it's a simple transaction or a complex dispute, our goal is to provide you with seamless representation and practical solutions.

Let us help you navigate the intricacies of real estate law and ensure that your interests are well-protected.

Landlords | Tenants

At Flowers Davis, we provide comprehensive legal services for both landlords and tenants, ensuring clear and effective communication in lease agreements and resolving disputes when they arise.

Our Services Include:

- Lease Preparation: Our attorneys work closely with both landlords and tenants to draft leases that clearly outline the rights, responsibilities, and expectations of both parties. We conduct thorough interviews to ensure all scenarios are addressed.
- Document Review and Drafting: We prepare and review leases, amendments, and related documents to ensure they accurately reflect the terms of the agreement and protect your interests.

- Dispute Resolution: If conflicts arise regarding the terms of a lease or landlord-tenant issues, our attorneys can provide expert advice and work towards resolving disputes. We prioritize negotiation and mediation but are also prepared to take legal action if necessary.
- Eviction Proceedings: If a tenant violates lease terms, we assist landlords with eviction proceedings, ensuring compliance with all legal requirements. Conversely, we also represent tenants in defense of eviction actions when appropriate.
- Liens: We handle disputes involving liens on rental properties, helping landlords enforce their rights and protect their property.

Whether you're a landlord seeking to establish a fair lease or a tenant needing to address concerns or resolve a dispute, Flowers Davis offers skilled legal guidance to navigate the complexities of lease agreements and related issues.

Celia C. Flowers – Senior Partner, Industry Advocate, Thought Leader, Quadruple-Board-Certified by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization

Celia C. Flowers is a Senior Partner at Flowers Davis PLLC, where she leads or co-leads the Oil, Gas & Energy, Real Estate, and Civil Litigation Sections.

Celia holds an unparalleled distinction as a quadruple Board-Certified attorney by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization in:

- Oil & Gas Law
- Residential Real Estate Law
- Property Owners Association Law
- Civil Trial Law

Board Certification is the highest mark of excellence in Texas law, and only 0.01% of active Texas attorneys hold certification in four distinct areas—making this a remarkable achievement.

Areas of Practice & Industry Leadership

Celia’s multi-faceted legal expertise spans:

- Oil & gas matters – Title opinions, surface damage disputes, receivership proceedings, and pipeline condemnation.
- Business & commercial litigation – Contract disputes, property claims, and real estate litigation.
- Real estate law – Title examination, transactional work, and advocacy for property owners.

Beyond her legal practice, Celia is the owner of East Texas Title Companies, which operates in over 80 Texas counties. Before becoming an attorney, she spent a decade as a petroleum landman, gaining firsthand industry insight that enhances her legal practice.

Recognized Expertise & Industry Advocacy

Celia is widely regarded as a thought leader and advocate for the oil and gas, real estate, and title insurance industries. Her board memberships, leadership roles, and speaking engagements include:

- Texas Title Examination Standards Board (since 2011) – Developing standards for title examination in real estate and oil and gas law.

Rob Knight – Managing Partner, Oil & Gas and Real Estate Attorney

Rob Knight is the Managing Partner over the Oil and Gas Litigation, Appellate, and Transactional Sections at Flowers Davis PLLC. With a legal career spanning nearly two decades, Rob has extensive experience in oil and gas title opinions, real estate law, and estate planning.

Legal Experience & Expertise

Rob began his practice in Houston, Texas, where he handled cases in family, criminal, real estate, and probate law. He later relocated to Tyler, Texas, to focus on oil and gas title opinions. His practice includes:

- Oil, Gas & Energy Title Opinions – Preparing a wide range of opinions, including drilling, division order, leasehold, and unit-wide opinions for multi-state oil and gas operations.
- Real Estate Law – Rendering title opinions and consulting on title issues for residential and commercial loans, as well as municipal condemnation proceedings.
- Title Review & Title Insurance – Managing a team of attorneys who review over 1,500 real estate properties per month for title companies before issuing title insurance policies.
- Estate Planning – Assisting individuals in wills, trusts, powers of attorney, advanced directives, and Transfer on Death Deeds.

Rob has a strong grasp of real property law, including probate and family law, which frequently intersect with oil and gas matters. His expertise in identifying and curing title defects makes him a trusted resource for large multinational oil and gas companies, mid-sized and small local operators, and individual mineral rights owners.

Commitment to Efficiency & Quality

Rob understands the importance of accuracy and timeliness in real estate and oil and gas transactions. Whether preparing title opinions or assisting with title policies and loan issuances, he ensures that every project is completed efficiently and with the highest level of quality.

Outside of Work

Beyond the legal field, Rob is an avid outdoorsman and creative. His hobbies include:

- Playing guitar & painting
- Mountain biking & yoga
- Preparing for & competing in obstacle course races

A Leader in Oil & Gas, Real Estate, and Title Law

With a deep understanding of land title law and real property transactions, Rob Knight is a respected leader in oil and gas litigation, real estate, and estate planning. His ability to navigate complex legal and title issues ensures that his clients receive strategic, effective, and timely solutions.

Professional Background

Jeff Bell is an Associate Attorney at Flowers Davis whose practice focuses on real estate, oil and gas, and general litigation. Licensed in Texas since 2014 and Arkansas since 2020, Jeff is a detail-oriented attorney with significant experience in mineral title examination. Since 2023, he has prepared sovereignty-to-present title opinions and brings a thorough approach to evaluating mineral ownership, identifying and resolving title defects, drafting Affidavits of Heirship, and compiling comprehensive Mineral Ownership Reports.

Family Law & Government Experience

In addition to his oil and gas practice, Jeff has a strong background in Arkansas family law, including child support enforcement. He previously served with the Arkansas Public Defender's Office, representing clients in both felony and misdemeanor matters, and later worked as a Felony Prosecutor with the Angelina County District Attorney's Office

Broader Legal Experience

Jeff's broader legal experience includes criminal defense, family law, probate, personal injury, and workers' compensation matters in both Texas and Arkansas. He has represented clients in divorce and custody disputes, suits affecting the parent-child relationship, and probate proceedings, including will preparation and estate administration. His experience also extends to negotiating insurance settlements, handling negligence claims, and advocating for injured employees in workers' compensation proceedings, including benefit hearings.

Community Involvement & Interests

Outside of his legal practice, Jeff is an accomplished guitarist and an avid reader. He has also been active in his community, serving with the Texarkana Noon Lions Club, the Boy Scouts of America as an Assistant Leader, and the Literacy Council of Miller and Bowie Counties in Texarkana, Texas.

Michael Carney – Business, Estate and Special Needs Advocate

Michael Carney is an associate attorney at Flowers Davis’ Tyler office, where he focuses primarily on estate planning and real estate law. With broad legal experience, he advises clients on estate planning strategies, probate proceedings, tutorships, and guardianships, helping them develop and implement comprehensive plans to protect their assets and loved ones.

One of Michael’s areas of particular interest is estate planning for families with children with special needs. As the father of a child with special needs, he brings personal insight and a deep understanding of the challenges these families face, allowing him to provide tailored legal guidance with compassion and expertise.

Michael’s real estate law practice is a natural extension of his estate planning work, requiring a strong understanding of property laws, probate laws, and asset protection strategies. He collaborates with lenders, title companies, individuals, and businesses to ensure that real estate transactions are handled efficiently and professionally. He also facilitates business entity formation and practices corporate transactional law.

Legal and Professional Experience

Before joining Flowers Davis, Michael honed his analytical and research skills as an analyst for the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (PCAOB) in Washington, D.C. There, he:

- Drafted interpretive guidance regarding Board rules
- Prepared recommendations for Board action
- Assisted registered firms in resolving compliance issues

His legal experience also includes clerking for the Hon. John H. Bayly of the District of Columbia Superior Court, where he managed a high-volume criminal docket, conducted legal research, and drafted court orders.

During law school, Michael gained valuable insight into government and regulatory affairs through internships with a United States Senator and the U.S. Chamber of Commerce Commission on Capital Markets, where he assisted in preparing briefing materials for the nomination of Chief Justice John Roberts.

Michael is licensed to practice law in Louisiana and Texas.

Personal Life

Outside of work, Michael enjoys spending time with his wife and four children and exploring the great outdoors. He and his wife, Genevieve, are deeply committed to their family and community.

Preston McGee – Litigator, Civil & Personal Injury Trial Lawyer

Board-Certified Trial Attorney

Preston McGee is Board Certified in Civil Trial Law and Personal Injury Trial Law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization—an achievement held by fewer than 1% of Texas attorneys with dual certifications. He has devoted his career to defending businesses, both large and small, in commercial and personal injury litigation.

Legal Expertise

Preston has an extensive trial practice, including:

- Commercial & Personal Injury Litigation – Defending businesses in complex disputes
- Construction Litigation – Successfully representing contractors and subcontractors against commercial and governmental claims
- Oil & Gas Litigation – Handling injury and condemnation cases for major oil and gas companies
- Medical & Professional Liability – Defending professionals in malpractice and liability claims
- Intellectual Property Litigation – Acting as local and trial counsel for businesses and corporations in federal cases pending in the Eastern District of Texas
- DTPA & Employment Law – Representing individuals and businesses in consumer protection and employment-related disputes

Career & Background

After earning his law degree from Baylor University Law School, Preston began his career at the Potter Law Firm in Tyler. His early success led to him being recognized as the Smith County Bar Association Outstanding Young Lawyer in 1996. He founded his own firm in 1998 before joining Flowers Davis in 2001, where he continues to vigorously advocate for his clients in trial practice.

Personal Life & Community Involvement

A sixth-generation Texan and East Texas native, Preston and his wife Liz have called Tyler home since 1986. They share a close-knit family with their children and their spouses: Peyton & Katelaine McGee, Emily & Bill Boyd, and Abby & Harrison Pollard.

Scott Miller – Real Estate, Banking & Business Law Attorney

Experienced Legal Counsel for Financial & Real Estate Institutions

Scott Miller is a seasoned attorney specializing in Real Estate, Banking, Mortgage Lending, and Business Law. With a background in both retail banking and title insurance, Scott brings a unique insider perspective to his legal practice, making him a trusted advisor to financial institutions, title companies, and businesses across Texas.

Legal & Financial Expertise

Scott provides comprehensive legal representation in:

- Banking & Mortgage Lending – Advising banks, credit unions, and mortgage lenders on regulatory compliance, loan structuring, and financial transactions
- Real Estate Law – Handling commercial and residential real estate transactions, title matters, and lending documentation
- Business Law – Assisting companies with contracts, entity formation, and general business transactions
- Title Insurance & Escrow Matters – Representing title companies and escrow officers in legal and regulatory issues

Professional Background

Scott began his legal career as an in-house attorney for a farm and ranch bank in East Texas, where he gained hands-on experience in agricultural lending and financial services law. Before law school, he spent a decade in retail banking, serving as a loan officer, banking center manager, and regional manager overseeing 30+ branches in the Dallas/Fort Worth area. Additionally, he worked as an escrow officer for a national title insurance underwriter, giving him a deep understanding of real estate transactions and title issues.

Personal Life & Community

Scott resides in Longview, Texas, with his wife, Stefanie.

Melanie Reyes-Rawls – Board-Certified Attorney in Oil & Gas Law - Serving Business, Energy, Real Estate, and Estate Planning Clients

Melanie Reyes-Rawls has been with Flowers Davis since September 2004, focusing on oil, gas and energy title opinions, expert energy consulting, and real estate transactions. She is Board Certified in Oil, Gas, and Mineral Law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization—a distinction held by fewer than 6% of Texas attorneys. Licensed to practice law in Texas and New Mexico, Melanie primarily represents national and international petroleum companies, delivering drilling and division order title opinions.

Expertise in Oil & Gas and Real Estate Law

Melanie’s deep experience in property law allows her to advise clients on:

- Drilling and division order title opinions
- Oil and gas transactions and consulting
- Real estate transactions
- Eminent domain proceedings
- Real property-related litigation and appeals

Estate Planning Services

Beyond her property law practice, Melanie assists individuals with comprehensive estate planning, including:

- Wills and trusts
- Powers of attorney
- Advanced directives
- Transfer on Death Deeds

Legal Background & Early Career

After graduating in the top 10% of her law school class, Melanie began her legal career as a Briefing Attorney for the Honorable Justices James Baker and Michael H. Schneider of the Texas Supreme Court. She then practiced at Thompson & Knight LLP in Dallas, specializing in oil and gas, antitrust, appellate, and intellectual property law.

Personal Interests

Outside of her legal work, Melanie enjoys music, cooking, gardening, deep-sea fishing, yoga, and spending time with family and friends.

Laci Stovall – Business Transactions, Real Estate & Oil & Gas Litigation Attorney

Legal Expertise & Career Journey

Laci Stovall focuses her legal practice at Flowers Davis on business transactions, real estate litigation, and oil and gas litigation. A licensed attorney since 2020, her passion for the legal field began in 2010 when she worked as a runner for a Tyler law firm. She gained further business law and litigation insights through internships at local firms and later assisted low-income rural Mississippi residents in forming LLCs as a Student Attorney for the University of Mississippi Transactional Law Clinic.

Prior to joining Flowers Davis in 2022, Laci built a strong foundation in business transactional law, property/real estate law, oil and gas law, and estate planning. With three years of experience in the oil and gas industry, she brings a well-rounded and pragmatic approach to legal problem-solving.

Education & Community Involvement

Laci's academic background includes:

- B.A. in History – Texas A&M University
- M.A. in Communication Studies (Rhetorical Theory Emphasis) – University of North Texas Toulouse Graduate School
- Juris Doctorate – University of Mississippi School of Law

Throughout her education, Laci was actively involved in university and community organizations, focusing on philanthropy and community outreach—values she continues to uphold in her professional and personal life.

Personal Life & Passion for Inclusivity

Originally from Troup, Texas, Laci is a dedicated single mother to her spirited daughter, Thea Rene' ("Lil Miss"), whom she affectionately calls "the next R.B.G." She is passionate about fostering inclusivity and equity and strives to be a strong role model for her daughter.

Outside of work, Laci enjoys spending time with Thea, embracing the joys of motherhood, and working toward a more just and inclusive world.

Ginger Young – Immigration Attorney & Community Advocate

Since 2009, Ginger Young has been a dedicated immigration attorney at Flowers Davis, PLLC, focusing on family-based immigration, permanent residency, and naturalization cases. As an active member of the American Immigration Lawyers Association (AILA), Ginger stays at the forefront of immigration law, ensuring her clients receive the most informed and effective representation possible.

Legal Experience & Career Journey

Ginger’s legal career has spanned multiple practice areas, all with a focus on advocating for and defending her clients:

- Law School & Early Career – Interned for the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC), gaining experience in civil rights law.
- Fanning, Harper & Martinson (Dallas) – Represented school districts and governmental entities in civil rights and employment litigation.
- Thompson & Knight (Houston) – Continued her work in employment and labor defense.
- Flowers Davis, PLLC (Since 2000) – Initially focused on civil rights and employment litigation, defending governmental and law enforcement agencies before transitioning to immigration law in 2009.

Passion for Immigration Law

Ginger’s shift to immigration law was driven by her desire to help clients build better lives. Since making this transition, she has helped countless individuals and families navigate the complexities of U.S. immigration law, providing compassionate and results-driven representation.

Community Leadership & Advocacy

Beyond the courtroom, Ginger is deeply committed to empowering and integrating the Hispanic community in East Texas. In 2022, she founded Viva La Rosa, a nonprofit dedicated to Latino cultural and social inclusion. Its first major initiative was integrating Hispanic representation into the Texas Rose Festival, where over 40 quinceañeras from 20 Hispanic heritage countries participated in the parade—a historic and now annual event. Flowers Davis proudly sponsors the float, and Ginger personally ensures families can attend the Coronation.

A Trusted Advocate for Immigration & Inclusion

Ginger’s bilingual skills (fluent in Spanish), deep legal knowledge, and commitment to her community make her an outstanding advocate for immigrant families. Whether fighting for clients' rights or leading cultural initiatives, she is dedicated to making a meaningful impact.

Life Outside of Work

Ginger enjoys spending time with her husband, Bob, and daughter, Olivia, and continuing her mission to uplift and support her community.
